ROAR STREET JOURNAL

Ask The Author #11

It's the "Pets" theme!
My family dog Milky can finally be in the spotlight!

Milky--!
RRRRRR

Alright, let's read some letters...

Lilac:)

Hey Bonnie,

Are you a cat or a dog person? Btw thx for such a great comic :)

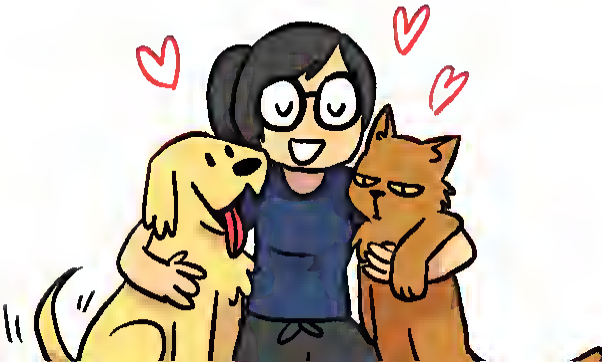
Lilac

I LOVE ALL ANIMALS
(except bugs)



I like both dogs and cats.

But since I only have experience with dogs...

...I'm dog (keeping) person.

Nabila

Hi bonnie, is it weird if i want to had a reptile pets? everyone's (my friends and parents) always said it's weird for having a reptile pets ˊ_ゝˋ)

I don't think so.

There are many people out there who love exotic pets such as reptiles and insects.

I have friends who kept frogs and iguanas.

When I was younger,

I loved reptiles and wanted to keep pet snakes.

The closest I got were plastic toy snakes.

Raphael Pratama

just re-read the whole comic and i realized, it's been the exact 2 years from the beginning of this comic. Happy 2nd birthday for RSJ!!! Looking forward for more great works from you, Bonnie.

since this month theme is pets, i'd like to ask this thing. i have allergic to dust, feather, etc which makes me unable to have any pets at home. but when i see someone's pet or a stray one, it makes me want to have/take care on it. i just don't know how to transfer this 'want to care' feeling towards pet.

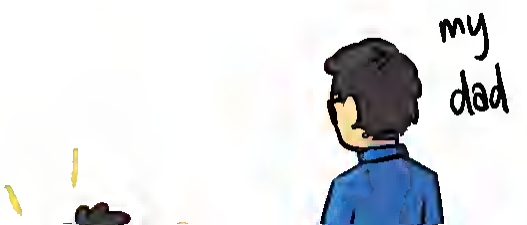
If you really want to keep a pet,

hairless animals may be your best bet.

You are as special as I
No fur
in the house
Skinny Pig
Sphynx Cat

rezzaNI

soo bonie... what's your very first pet that you have, and why you choose it? by the way, I love your comic, keep draw and inspire more people please... 🤗



Hey dad,
look what I found!

Can I keep it?

Several days later

Storia Featherquill Dagenhart

my mom thinks getting pets is a bad idea because she thinks that the amount of commitment and responsibility that comes with a pet will be overwhelming for us, not just that, but also the fact that the emotional attachment to the pet will be hard to sever when it has died, and she doesn't want us to be emotionally crippled forever. what do you think? do you agree?

Maybe your mum had a sad experience of a pet passing so she doesn't want you to go through similar feelings.

I will eventually loose you one day Milky

I need to invest less emotion on you

...But never keep a pet so to avoid the pain?

(imagined scenario)

Don't fall in love until

Don't fall in love because losing your spouse will be so painful

.....
26yrs old

KittyKatOnRoof

Is it unhealthy to talk to your pets?

I talk to Milky often,
so does everyone in the house.

Especially my mum

Where's the ball Milky?

Go find the ball Milky!

We are a perfectly healthy family.
Milky. kiss kiss
dad

Pets provide social and emotional support to humans, seriously

washball

Hi Bonnie, do you have any funny stories involving your (if you had any) pets or other people's pets?

There was one time we gave Milky a HUGE bone.

He couldn't finish it, so he tried to dig a hole on his cushion to hide the bone.

drop

He spent a very long time trying to cover

the bone with some invisible dirt.

You can never hide it Milky

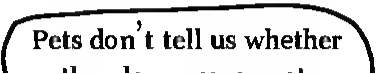
There's no dirt here

Chopotito

Hi Bonnie, I had a cat that I treasured, died four years ago. His name was Mitton. I love him so much. I was broken when he left, & I don't think I've been the same since. I had plenty of memories, but one was a night when I study for exam all by myself, which he came and accompany me. I feel loved at the time. But after he was gone, I wonder if he actually loved me, or even if he was feel loved by me, or if I was good to him. How do I make peace with not knowing it forever? Thank you :')

The difference between animals and people is that animals don't speak.



they love you or not.

If you treated your pet nicely and shared some good time with it, I'm sure it lived a well-loved life.

Xiaojing Wu

Hi Bonnie! Do animals in RSJ have pets? What kind of pets would they have?

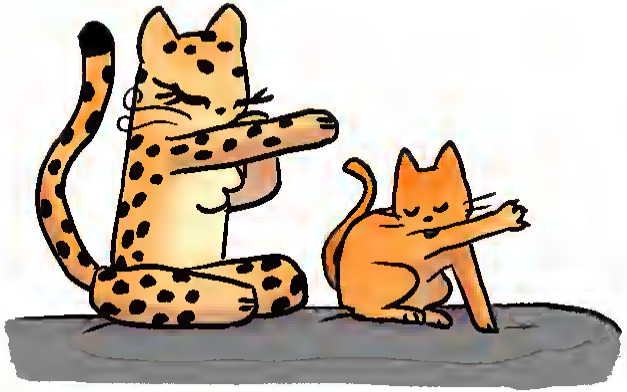
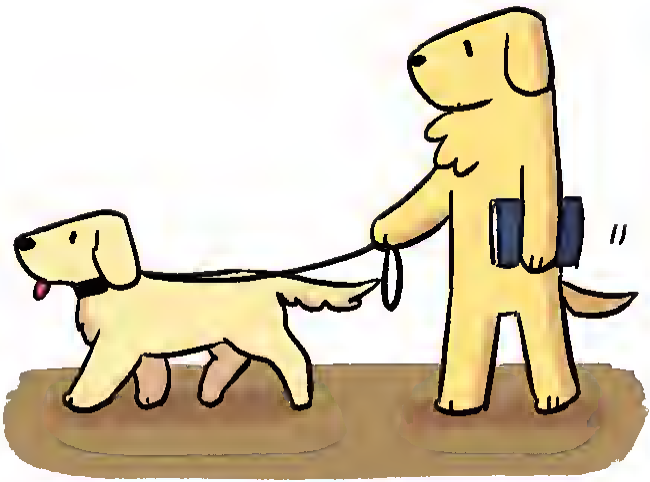
The idea of "pets" doesn't exist in RSJverse

because everyone has a furry friend to pet and hug.

If RSJ really had pets...





Thanks for all your letters!
I enjoyed reading your pet stories a lot.
For the last part, I'll draw some of your funny pet moments!

Lolapaloosa

I have a dog. Her name is ruby,she's a medium dog and have a white straight fur . She's really interesting because she only get well with women. With men, she barks , growl and bite them. My father would always make jokes like " I trained her so you will not find a bad husband". Between my friends she's well known as the " man's hell". But I still love her ♥ she have eight years now, but she still guard our house of "bad guys".

Snowyy

the funniest memory I have with my cat is when we walked around with her on my head like she was a hat people kept asking for pictures it was really cute

Stormbuilder

My dog is...goofy her name is gabby, she's a golden (non) retriever and she's big and thinks she's small.. could you draw her?

Golden Retriever

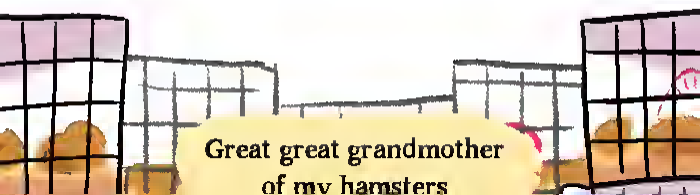
Golden (non) Retriever

C. HuiMin

Hi Bonnie :D

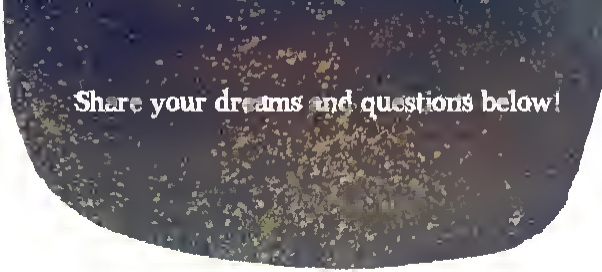
Here's one of my pet experience:

my mother bought a pair of syrian hamsters for me (one male and one female). After having them for a few months, the female hamster gave birth to quite a handful of babies. Most of the babies grew up and we had about 10 hamsters in total. We didnt separate them unless they started to fight. After a few months, the hamsters started to reproduce again. This was quite a crazy cycle cause we ended up having nearly 70 plus hamsters in total x.x!! (c)



Lastly, here's my family dog Milky!

Next Ask The Author theme:



ROAR STREET JOURNAL

Instagram Facebook Twitter Tumblr
@Bonniepangart

www.bonniepangart.com